

PENDING POLICY FOR UNDOCUMENTED PEOPLE

The lack of pathways to permanent residence creates barriers to equitable inclusion for women and gender-diverse im/migrants in Canada.

CALL-TO-ACTION

develop and implement a highly accessible short-term regularization program, prioritizing women and gender-diverse individuals who are at increased vulnerability to abuse.

develop and implement long-term access to a permanent resident status that is broad and inclusive.

include those who have been through the refugee determination system in the regularization programs, regardless of whether their claims are pending or were refused.

prioritize permanent residence to those experiencing gender-based violence or labour exploitation.

to repeal and/or adjust immigration regulations that can lead to precarity/loss of status for women and gender-diverse migrants.

