

REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE IN CANADA FOR WOMEN AND GENDER-DIVERSE WORKERS WITH PRECARIOUS IMMIGRATION STATUS

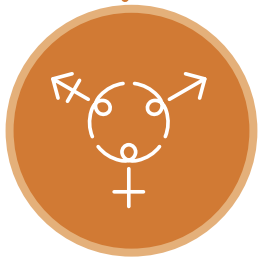

A lack of comprehensive reproductive healthcare and protections creates barriers to the equitable inclusion of women and gender-diverse immigrants with precarious status in Canada.

CALL-TO-ACTION

broaden and integrate reproduction justice efforts and to ensure they are more consistent across provinces disseminate accurate information of reproductive service options provide culturally appropriate and gender-sensitive health care services develop access without fear policies enforce and enhance labour protection and associated legislation
